Meet Cover Artist TRACY PINKSTON

Roaming the streets of our City and the backroads of our County, Tracy has captured the spirit of Nacogdoches in her senses and portrays our people and our places through her art.

Her photography, featured throughout these pages, reflects a deep understanding of what shapes our home. She pauses on commutes, pulling off the roads, and crouching low or climbing high until the view tells its story. In the mornings, in the evenings, in the night, Tracy has a talent for discovering a newness of the landscapes and structures that have existed in Nacogdoches much longer than she has.

As a Brushing Up Nac artist, Tracy created the 52-foot-by-8-foot mural of blueberry fields supporting several iconic Nacogdoches structures. The outline of the festival's mural image was presented for a paint-by-number event in the 2024 Texas Blueberry Festival. In 2025, Tracy's creativity brought about another paint-by-number festival event with a Live, Work, Play in Nacogdoches theme.

The piece that has generated a most positive buzz for the Nacogdoches County Chamber is the mural she painted directly on the facility's north-facing wall at 2516 North St. In September 2025, Tracy spent her evenings and weekends installing the mural commissioned as a community service project by the Leadership Nacogdoches class of 2024-25. Not only has The Chamber mural joined the public art series that explains the workings of our community, it also has inspired the cover art and the "Only in Nacogdoches" theme of the Nacogdoches County Chamber's 2026-27 publication, website design and more.

Tracy is a Woden native who continues to take on new projects. She is currently creating murals for communities and businesses across the region and is available for consultations for those looking to bring their own spaces to life.

AN IDEAL PLACE TO LIVE, WORK, PLAY AND DO BUSINESS

Nacogdoches delivers the perfect blend of historic character, economic momentum and home-town quality of life. As the oldest town in Texas, we offer an established foundation in East Texas that is paired with the innovation, talent, and opportunity of a growing regional hub.

LIVE

Nacogdoches is known for its welcoming neighborhoods, affordable cost of living and a pace that supports both families and professionals. With walkable historic districts, tree-lined streets and access to quality healthcare, residents enjoy a lifestyle that balances tradition with modern convenience. Our community spirit is strong, our business community leadership is engaged and our sense of pride runs deep.

WORK

A diverse blend of industries powers the local economy — from education, healthcare, manufacturing and logistics to agriculture, retail and hospitality. Businesses benefit from a stable workforce, strong regional partnerships, and accessible leadership at both the city and county levels. Stephen F. Austin State University and area colleges provide a consistent pipeline of talent, research connections, and professional development that strengthens every sector.

PLAY

Recreation here is shaped by East Texas natural beauty and a vibrant local cultural scene. Residents and visitors enjoy miles of trails along Banita and Lanana Creeks, Texas' largest azalea garden, festivals year-round, historic attractions and a thriving arts and music community. Whether it is a weekend on the brick streets, a live entertainment performance or a day exploring our parks and waterways, Nacogdoches makes it easy to unwind and revive.

DO BUSINESS

Nacogdoches offers the advantages of a pro-business environment with the personal touch of a connected community. Entrepreneurs, small businesses, and major employers alike find support through the Nacogdoches County Chamber of Commerce and a central East Texas location with key transportation access. Here, relationships still matter and collaboration drives our advancements.

Sincerely,

FROM THE CHAMBER BOARD

The Chamber Welcomes
You to Nacogdoches

Whether you're here for work, family, or a fresh start, you'll find friendly folks and the resources you need to feel at home. Utilities, transportation, communications, essential services, and everyday goods; plus helpful local information is easy to find at nacogdoches.org, your go-to source for connecting with the people, businesses, and services that keep our community working.

WORKING TOGETHER.

When we come together for a common goal, we can achieve uncommon results. We at R&K Distributors salute the The Nacogdoches Chamber of Commerce for striving for a better community.

The late Gary Justice was General Manager for R&K Distributors, Inc. and an active Nacogdoches County Chamber of Commerce board member from 2000 to 2006, serving as chair of the executive committee from 2004 to 2005. The theme he chose for his year at the helm was "An Attitude of Gratitude." After his death in 2010, the Nacogdoches County Chamber of Commerce named its annual Business Excellence Awards after Gary to commemorate the man many considered "the rock" that kept the Chamber focused and successful.

IF YOU DRINK, DON'T DRIVE.

DECIDE TO RIDE

Business Excellence Awards

GARY JUSTICE BUSINESS EXCELLENCE AWARD winners are named each year by the Nacogdoches County Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors and honored at the Annual Meeting and Membership Banquet. Honorees are proven leaders in their industries and have positively impacted the business community.

Discover Nacogdoches

Rooted in history, blooming with beauty

By VISIT NACOGDOCHES

Nacogdoches stands as a living testament to Texas history, where centuries of heritage blend seamlessly with natural beauty and modern hospitality. As the Oldest Town in Texas, our community offers visitors an authentic experience that honors the past while embracing the present.

A HISTORIC LEGACY

History permeates every corner of Nacogdoches. Our downtown streets follow the path of El Camino Real de los Tejas, the royal road that connected Spanish colonial missions and settlements. This deep-rooted heritage is preserved through meticulously maintained historic sites, including Millard's Crossing Historic Village — a reconstructed 19th-century village complex — and the Sterne-Hoya Museum & Library, the oldest structure in Nacogdoches.

From the 1830s-era Durst-Taylor House to the beautifully restored Zion Hill Baptist Church, our community's commitment to historic preservation ensures that each generation can walk in the footsteps of Texas pioneers. The Old University Building, which served as a Civil War hospital, stands alongside dozens of historic markers and sites that tell the story of Texas' evolution from frontier territory to modern state.

THE GARDEN CAPITAL OF TEXAS

In 2014, the Texas State Legislature officially recognized Nacogdoches as the Garden Capital of Texas, acknowledging our exceptional botanical heritage. Our community is home to the largest azalea garden in Texas, showcasing over 550 varieties of azaleas alongside extensive collections of camellias, hydrangeas, and Japanese maples.

Throughout the year, our gardens transform with the seasons — from spring's vibrant blooms to fall's spectacular color displays — creating an ever-changing natural canvas that delights residents and visitors alike.

NATURAL BEAUTY AND OUTDOOR RECREATION

Nestled in the Pineywoods region of East Texas, Nacogdoches is surrounded by lush forests and pristine waterways. The Lanana Creek Trail system winds through native woodlands, offering miles of hiking and mountain biking trails for all skill levels. Shorter nature trails, including the Shofner Memorial Loop, Gayla Mize Garden Trail, and Banita Creek Trail, provide accessible outdoor experiences for families.

Water recreation thrives here as well. Splash Kingdom Waterpark serves as a regional destination for family fun, while Camp Tonkawa — a spring-fed swimming area that has welcomed visitors for over a century — offers a refreshing connection to simpler times.

A COMMUNITY RICH IN CHARACTER

Nacogdoches is more than a destination — it's a community where history, nature, and Southern hospitality converge. Whether you're exploring our museums, strolling through azalea-lined paths, or hiking forest trails, you'll discover a town that values its heritage while welcoming new stories and new visitors.

Where Opportunity Takes Root

Business, education, and leadership are shaping Nacogdoches County's future

Nacogdoches County's economic development is built on strong partnerships that foster business growth, workforce readiness, and community prosperity. The Nacogdoches County Chamber of Commerce serves as a central advocate and resource hub for the local business community, promoting a pro-business environment, networking opportunities, and leadership development while supporting initiatives that make the region attractive for both employers and residents. The Chamber's mission is to create an environment where business can succeed, helping lead the county to be an ideal place to live, work, play, and do business.

Complementing the Chamber's efforts, the Nacogdoches Economic Development Corporation (NEDCO) focuses on strategic business recruitment, retention and expansion. As a public-private partnership, NEDCO works to attract new industries, support existing businesses, and connect entrepreneurs with resources such as market data and planning assistance.

At the regional level, the Deep East Texas Council of Governments (DETCOG) provides planning, coordination, and economic development services across an 11-county area that includes Nacogdoches County. Through initiatives like SiteSelect and its Comprehensive Economic Development Strategy, DETCOG equips communities with data, infrastructure information, and development-ready site listings to support business location decisions and regional growth.

A cornerstone of the local economy is Stephen F. Austin State University (SFA), which anchors the region as a knowledge hub and major economic engine. SFA contributes hundreds of millions of dollars in economic activity annually and supports thousands of local jobs through its operations, student and employee spending, and visitor expenditures. The university also fosters research, innovation, and workforce development opportunities that attract employers and support long-term economic vitality. SFA's Center for Entrepreneurship and Center for Professional and Continuing Education strengthen Nacogdoches County's economy by supporting business creation, workforce training, and lifelong learning, helping ideas grow into enterprises and talent grow into opportunity.

Working with other business resource powerhouses, The Chamber provides access to the tools that local entrepreneurs value. Together, we create a dynamic ecosystem for economic development — blending advocacy, strategic planning, business support, workforce alignment, and academic strength — to grow jobs, attract investment, and enhance the lives of those who choose Nacogdoches County as the place to live and to work.

Nacogdoches is considered film-friendly primarily because the city and local partners have worked to make it easy and appealing for film and media productions to come here. It's part of a broader Film Friendly Texas initiative where communities adopt official filming guidelines, designate a local contact to help with inquiries, and streamline permitting and use of public spaces which signal to filmmakers that the town is welcoming and prepared to support productions.

We're driven by doing what's right for you.

By STEPHEN F. AUSTIN
STATE UNIVERSITY

Stephen F. Austin State University, the newest member of The University of Texas System, is one of the top rural-serving universities of its size in the country and one of the fastest-growing universities in Texas. SFA offers more than 120 areas of study across six colleges, combining the resources of a large university with the personal attention of a smaller college. Through its Purple Promise program, SFA and the UT System cover tuition and fees for eligible Texas students, expanding access to affordable higher education.

Nestled among the East Texas pines, SFA's main campus features modern academic and residential facilities, along with extensive gardens and trails. Including its off-campus sites, such as the Todd Agricultural Research Center, DeWitt School of Nursing, and aviation program hangars, the university spans 1,210 acres across Nacogdoches County. Current construction projects include an $85 million Forestry and Agriculture complex and a $40 million Greg Arnold Center for Entrepreneurship, both part of SFA's $1 billion campus master plan.

Home to the only NCAA Division I athletic program in East Texas, SFA unites students, fans, and the community through shared pride and tradition. The Elliott College of Fine Arts further enriches campus and community life through nationally recognized artists, award-winning performances, and a vibrant mix of music, theatre, dance, and art events year-round.

"Best Private School"

Christ Episcopal School

As the longest accredited private school (Pre K-3 through Grade 5) in Nacogdoches, CES offers a highly enriched, developmentally appropriate education. Our students go on to excel in high school and college, consistently graduating at the top of their classes. Small class sizes and flexibility of a private school education allow us to foster each child's individual gifts.
